Community Advisory Committee

Role

The role of a Community Advisory Committee is to provide the Municipal Council with a formalized on-going opportunity for public consultation and to offer recommendations, advice, and information to the Municipal Council on those specialized matters which relate to the purpose of the committee.

Mandate

The Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee (ESACAC) reports to the Municipal Council, through the Civic Works Committee. The Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee provides input, advice and makes recommendations on environmental matters affecting the City of London.

The Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee is a Council resource with respect to matters such as the following:

- remedial planning toward the clean-up of contaminated areas;
- waste reduction, reuse and recycling programs;
- water and energy conservation measures;
- climate change mitigation;
- the development and monitoring of London's Urban Forest Strategy and Climate Emergency Action Plan and a resource for other related policies and strategies;
- the maximization of the retention of trees and natural areas; and
- other aspects of environmental concerns as may be suggested by the Municipal Council, its other Committees, or the Civic Administration.

Composition

Voting Members

Maximum of fifteen members consisting of individuals with an interest and/or background in environmental initiatives.

Non-Voting Resource Group

Non-Voting and Resource members may be engaged as the committee deems necessary.

Sub-committees and Working Groups

The Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee may form sub-committees and working groups as may be necessary to address specific issues; it being noted that the City Clerk's Office does not provide resources or support to these sub-committees or groups. These sub-committees and working groups shall draw upon members from the Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee as well as outside resource members as deemed necessary. The Chair of a sub-committee and/or working group shall be a voting member of the Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee.

Term of Office

Appointments to Community Advisory Committees shall be determined by the Municipal Council.

Conduct

The conduct of Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee members shall be in keeping with Council Policy including the Respectful Workplace Policy.

Meetings

Meetings shall be once monthly at a date and time set by the City Clerk in consultation with the Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee. Length of meetings shall vary depending on the agenda. Meetings of working groups that have been formed by the Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee may meet at any time and at any location and are in addition to the regular meetings of the Environmental Stewardship and Action Community Advisory Committee.
